This should give you an idea of what to expect in your country.

The conferences are not sponsored by any organization but were initiated and continued, spurred by the interest of the community psychology international community.

Since this is the case, the conferences are financed and organized by a local committee which is usually supported by universities, private and public organizations and, of course, by registration fees.

Previous conference organizers provide future organizers with contact information of all participants.

EXPRESSION OF INTEREST
DUE 30TH JAN 2027

A brief document that includes:

- a commitment to send a proposal by the established deadline
- Information about the contact person to follow up on procedures to receive the proposal and coordinate the evaluation meeting at Costa Rica ICCP 2028.

PLEASE NOTE

Only complete proposals will be considered.

Past coordinators of previous conferences will review all submissions, as has been the case previously.

The shortlisted candidates will be invited to present their respective proposals at a meeting during the ICCP2028 Conference in Costa Rica where a decision will be made and the 2030 site will be announced in the Closing Ceremony.

If more than one proposal is considered favorably, you should indicate if you would be willing to host the 2032 conference as well. The committee can consider accepting more than one proposal for future years.

Examples of previously approved proposals and a copy of the evaluation form that will be used to evaluate your proposal are available upon request.

Email the request to Christopher Sonn at
